

Speaking Exam Preparation (Speaking & Oral Mediation) B1 Workshop

TOP TIPS

For Internet Safety

Stay anonymous!

- Use another name or a nickname
- Keep your address a secret
- Don't tell where you go to school
- Only give your phone number to people you actually know
- Make sure you don't give ANY clues about yourself!

Privacy!

- Always make sure your settings only allow people you know to see your account
- Don't give out any personal details
- Don't discuss your problems online
- If you think your account's been hacked, report it and change it!

Think before you post

- Don't post before thinking CAREFULLY and ask:
 - Is it offensive?
 - Could it affect your future employment?
 - Would you be happy for your parents or family to see it?

Passwords

- Keep your password secure and change it regularly
- Don't use your name or anything easy to guess
- Don't share it with ANYONE, even your friends
- Use a mixture of capitals, numbers and special characters
- If it should CHANGE IT!

Remember...

- NOTHING is private
- Don't say anything you wouldn't say in real life
- Don't post other people's photos
- NEVER post anything unless you are absolutely sure they will only be seen by a closed group

Are they real?

- Do you know this 'friend' in real life?
- Are you REALLY using their account, not someone pretending to be them?
- Remember some people use WEIR things or pretending to be someone they're not!

Feeling uncomfortable

- DON'T reply to trolls or people making unkind comments
- Don't be afraid to 'unfriend' or block people who upset you
- Do REPORT people if necessary

Believe... NOT!

- Don't fall for it - things aren't ALWAYS what they seem!
- Everyone exaggerates - you probably do it as well!
- Remember: most people only tell you the good bits!
- Don't be fooled by 'their' offers!

Be Safe! Be Sure! Be Smart!

SPENDING HABITS IN THE UK

What did the people of Britain spend their money on in 2013?

GAMBLING

More was spent on gambling on average each week from going to the cinema, concerts, theme parks, museums and the theatre combined. On average, £3.20 was spent on gambling each week.

ALCOHOL

Boozing at home cost households more than drinking in bars, pubs and clubs. The average weekly spend on alcohol consumed in the home was £7.80, while £7.40 was spent on alcohol consumed outside the home.

SNACKS

Cakes, buns and biscuits ate up more cash each week than fresh fruit. Households spent £3.60 on sweet stuff and £3.20 on fresh fruit. Northern Ireland were the country that spent the most on these treats.

TAKEAWAYS

£4.20 was the average household spend for each week on takeaways to eat at home, which is around £1 a week more than that spent on fresh fruit and vegetables.

WALKING

People across the UK spent £4.60 on average per week on their feet. Those in the South West spent the most averaging £5.90 per week.

PHONE

Households where the head is aged 50-64 spent the most on alcohol and tobacco. When it came to drinking alcohol at home, they forked out £10.10 a week.

HAIR

Hair and beauty treatments have risen in popularity with UK households spending an average of £3.50 per week on them, a significant increase from previous years.

Speaking fluency and mediation skills don't develop alone. Only regular practice makes progress.

This workshop focuses on vocabulary and synonym building in the topics you need to know for the exam, and every day conversation.

Oral mediation and clear verbal communication are mostly about quickly and comfortably using synonyms while speaking. Come have fun during guided and corrected oral practice. Meanwhile, you will build your knowledge of the topics and your mental vocabulary bank for improved speaking fluency. Additionally, this activity will enhance your listening, reading and writing skills.
